BoardDocs
A DILIGENT BRAND

Diligent has brought BoardDocs into its family of brands, because of the BoardDocs commitment to excellence in governance, with a focus on the public sector. More than 3,500 school districts and public boards use BoardDocs to help streamline their modern governance needs.

"BoardDocs increases the amount of time board members have to review the agenda, enabling them to better prepare for meetings. Electronic distribution not only saves time and resources, but it also provides unprecedented public access via our website to agenda items and other board-related information."

- Lisa Marquez, Miami Area Unified School District
