Angela Penquite: Jan:
Jan: Any idea when the ODE will present a plan for opening up in the fall?
With regards to graduations, that is the current standard. Are we anticipating that this could change within the next 30 days? Many have moved their scborchers: graduations to the end of June for that reason If public school funding is cut, then private school administrative reimbursements and auxiliary funding should see cuts too.
Julie Feasel: Victor:
Victor: Any word on special education services, like speech therapy, etc.
Wasn't it said two weeks ago during a meeting involving pipeline valuations that the taxes were calculated at 88% of the cost of construction cost? How will the devaluation of the actual pipeline affect funding?
Vella King: Here is a link to the 2020 Legislative Platform:
<https://www.ohioschoolboards.org/sites/default/files/2020LegislativePlatform.pdf>
Jeff Chambers: Vella King:
Vella King: Thank you. I thought maybe Jennifer was talking about the value of the product Speaking of Capital Conference, do you intend to hold the engagement in the same manner? If so, are you reevaluating that decision at any designated time?
Stephen Fujii: Loretta:
Loretta: Has anything been said about districts meeting maintenance of effort this year?
Any updates on where the territory transfer issue stands in Federal Court and Ginny: how soon a decision will be made?
For Stephen Fujii and everyone here...OSBA is moving forward with plans for a full Capital Conference. So much is still unknown about 7 months from now, but we envision a great conference and will follow guidance and appropriate Cheryl Ryan: Julie Feasel:
Julie Feasel: For Ernie - what do you expect to see in casino revenue for schools?

vkeating: For Ginny and everyone... I understand that the attorneys working with us on the territory transfer case just informed us they are hoping for a decision within ^I too am curious about Mrs. Wagner-Feasel's question....is there a general rule of thumb to know relative to Casino Revenue?

Stephen Fujii: What was decided about spring sports and PE credit?

Julie Feasel: Perrysburg is doing a "virtual graduation" on May 17th, our predetermined date. Do you see any legal problems with us doing that? We are working with our local Health Department.

Sue: Any legislative discussion regarding flexibility with existing cba's or contracts in general, especially in terms of conditions of employment.

Victor: Thanks to Forecast5 and Ernie for the great presentation!

Cheryl Ryan: You can view the MHSEL Virtual Series # 1 at <http://www.leadingourlearners.org/overcoming-barriers-to-achievement/mental-health-issues/>

Laurie Miller: Happy to be included, very informative, you guys have a great concept going

Ernie Strawser: Thank you for doing the Town Hall meetings in this format. Is this something that may continue even when meetings resume in person? As a superintendent intern, I have had the opportunity to attend virtually, and otherwise would not have the ability to attend. This has been a very valuable experience. Thank

Trista Claxon: Don't forget you can click on the three dots on the bottom right of the chat box you can save this chat box as a reference

Wanda Bloch: Thank you for the legislative info. it was timely. please update next week.

Patrick Schymanski: Thanks for the updates.

Michelle Hughes: I know there is one more "Town Hall" scheduled for May 6. Are there plans to continue this cadence or continue these as things change so rapidly? It seems like updates are occurring daily- or at least weekly- and I find this to be tremendously valuable...especially the legislative updates. Thank you for

Stephen Fujii: Thanks everyone for the presentations today and thanks OSBA doing this

Keith Brewster:
