

The OSBA search consultant team

Kristine Robbins

Kristi joined the OSBA Board and Management Services division as a consultant in March 2023. She was appointed Director of Board and Management Services in April 2025. Professionally, Kristi has served as Vice President and Chief of Staff for the President's Office at Otterbein University, Executive Director of Leadership Westerville and Sr. Consultant for Leadership Development Group. She earned certification as a Society of Human Resource Management Senior Certified Professional (SHRM-SCP) and has extensive human resource management, professional development and training experience. Prior to joining OSBA, Kristi served as Director of Human Resources for Communities In Schools of Ohio, a non-profit organization that seeks to remove academic and non-academic barriers to help students succeed in school and life.

As a former board of education member for Westerville City Schools, Kristi served as president and vice president as well as board liaison for personnel, government relations, policy and strategic planning. While serving on the Westerville Board of Education, Kristi was appointed to OSBA's Federal Relations Network, currently known as the Federal Legislative Advocacy Group (FLAG), and OSBA's first Board Member Cabinet. Kristi has a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies from The Ohio State University and Master of Science in Management, Leadership and Strategy from Michigan State University's Eli Broad College of Business.

Teri Morgan

Teri joined the OSBA Board and Management Services division in the fall of 2015. She is the division's senior deputy director. Professionally, Teri has served as Communications Manager for Delaware County and before that, OhioHealth. She has extensive management and public relations experience with several non-profit associations.

An experienced board of education member, Teri served on the boards of Olentangy Local Schools, the Delaware County Career Center, the Educational Service Center of Delaware-Union Counties and the ESC of Central Ohio.

An experienced trainer and facilitator, Teri's experience in communications and in board governance serves her well in the Board and Management Services division.

Teri earned a communications degree from Miami University and resides in Powell, Ohio.

Quinn Maceyko

Quinn joined the OSBA Board and Management Services division in June 2023 as a consultant. Prior to joining the Ohio School Boards Association, Quinn owned and operated his own lawn care business, Maceyko Lawn Care, and was a substitute teacher for the ESC of Central Ohio.

He served as a school board member for both his alma mater, Cardington-Lincoln Local School District and Tri-Rivers Career Center in Marion, Ohio. Quinn was the Community Outreach Liaison and chaired the Cardington-Lincoln's strategic planning committee.

Statewide, he was the district's delegate for the OSBA Delegate Assembly and was a member of both the OSBA Credentials and Central Executive Committees. He was also an OHSAA School Board Liaison Committee member.

Quinn is active in his hometown of Cardington as president of the Cardington-Lincoln Alumni Association, an ex-officio member of the Cardington Youth Basketball Board and a volunteer assistant for the Cardington-Lincoln Athletic Department. He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History from the Ohio State University at Marion.

Shantelle K. Jenkins

Shantelle K. Jenkins joined the OSBA Board and Management Services division as a Board Management Consultant. She brings more than two decades of experience in education, public service, and nonprofit leadership. An experienced facilitator and governance practitioner, Shantelle has supported boards and leadership teams through searches, strategic planning processes, organizational transitions, and full-board engagement. Her work emphasizes trust-building, clarity of roles and responsibilities, and governance practices that center students, communities, and long-term outcomes.

Shantelle has also served as a member of a public charter school board of education, an experience that informs her understanding of board roles, governance responsibilities, and the realities board members face in decision-making and oversight. She currently serves as a Board Member for the International Coaching Federation (ICF) Columbus Chapter and is an active member of the Association for Talent Development (ATD) at both the national level and within the Columbus chapter. As an ICF-aligned executive coach and experienced facilitator, she brings a strong ethical foundation, discretion, and a deep understanding of adult learning to her work with boards and leadership teams.

Shantelle holds a Doctorate in Educational Leadership from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Master of Business Administration in Human Resource Management from Mount Vernon Nazarene University, a Master of Science in Education from Saint Joseph's University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism from The Ohio State University. She also holds a Certificate in Leadership Coaching from Georgetown University and a Certificate in Nonprofit Management from Bryn Mawr College. Her professional interests include governance capacity-building, leadership transitions, succession planning, organizational strategy, and leadership development.