As a board member, it is critical that you continue to develop the skills necessary to effectively serve your district. OSBA stands as your leading resource for board member professional development. OSBA has numerous programs and training to assist you.

Workshops outlined on the back of this sheet will help you step off onto a new path as a leader and advocate in your school district.

Continue your journey with confidence

We value your district's membership and look forward to guiding you on your path to successful board service. OSBA provides comprehensive training, support, resources and inspiration to school boards to maximize their effectiveness in carrying out their leadership roles. Visit www.ohioschoolboards.org to access information to help you and your district move forward.
